After you determine your aim, you will need to work out what your audience's want is on your ebook. For instance, does your ebook solve a particular problem? If it does, and solves it in a approach that hasn't been written about in one hundred different ebooks, you will be in a position to obtain excessive gross sales at a excessive price. If your guide solves an issue or solutions questions in a new and unique method, you must price your book as high as you possibly can go. Just be prepared in your competitors to undercut you on price as soon as they hear about your book.

An efficient method for determining a worth is to send out a survey to your present customers. If these prospects have already bought an book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do that by creating a sales page for the new book, but do not embrace a value on that page. As an alternative, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another strategy is to check out costs by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different costs on every page. Make sure that your gross sales copy is precisely the identical on every page, and contains your promoting-deal with sentence. Then work out for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum price is.

Ultimately, should you've written a e book that solves a downside or presents a new method, your e-book will usher in both visitors and profits.
